

TRIANGLE FCC & DUKE CHINA CARE

invite you to join us for

TWO FILMS

by

Dr. Changfu Chang
Millersville University, PA

International adoption from the Chinese perspective

[Click here for more information on
Long Wait for Home](#)

&

A look at the differences in rural and urban life in China, through the eyes of two young girls

[Click here for more information on
Peer in the Distance](#)

Discussion with Dr. Chang follows

Sunday, Nov. 2, 2:00 pm

Duke University East Campus
Richard White Lecture Hall,
(For a map of White Lecture Hall, click here)

$10 per family donation requested.
After costs, all donations collected will support
Half the Sky Foundation and China Care programs in China

This is an adult event.

If after viewing the films you'd like to share them with your children, discounted DVDs will be available for purchase.

Duke China Care (online info) will host a simultaneous playgroup at "West Duke"
(near the White Lecture Hall). You must RSVP. Capacity is 40 children, ages 4 and up.

To RSVP for the playgroup, please click here.
(For a map of West Duke Building, click here.)

Visit www.FCCTriangle.org for more information