Classical Civilization Major Requirements

- Required courses:
  - option 1: CLST 11S or 153 (formerly 53), and CLST 12S or 154 (formerly 54), or
  - option 2: two Greek or Latin courses below the 100-level
  - Note: the two options may not be combined; e.g., CLST 11 and Lat 1 do not satisfy the requirement.
- Seven CLST courses at or above the 100 level, not counting CLST 153/154 (ex 53/54)
  - Courses must be in at least three of the following areas: history, art and archaeology, literature (in translation or in the original language at or above the 100-level), and philosophy; in planning coursework for the major students should consult with the DUS as to a given course's fit in the distribution.
  - Note: CLST courses include crosslisted courses originating in other departments and study-abroad transfers
  - Note: CLST 153/154 may not be counted toward the seven 100-level courses
- CLST capstone course, CLST 195S/196S
- Total: at least 10 courses
