

Justice Cries Out

A concert benefiting victims of human trafficking

Join the Duke International Justice Mission and World Relief at the Nasher Museum of Art for a concert and reception dedicated to raising awareness and supporting victims of human trafficking in North Carolina. All ticket proceeds will go to World Relief.

Performers:

Sapphire

Lady Blue

Something Borrowed, Something Blue

Running Lights

More TBA

April 3rd, 7pm

Nasher Museum of Art

Semi-formal attire

Food and drinks served

Tickets: Students $10, Non-Students $20

Sponsors:

Duke Center for International Development, Duke Chapel, Asian Student Association, Kenan Institute for Ethics

<http://www.dukeijm.org/justice>

