

Dear Mr. Matty Elhadj Moussa, Minister of Justice, Parliamentary Relations:

I am a student in the USA and have recently become aware of the problem of slavery in Niger. Several reports indicate that tens of thousands of people are still being held under the rule of a master without the ability to leave. I am writing to praise you for the steps that have been taken to eradicate slavery and to encourage you to implement these further.

Yours sincerely,

Duke University