

NAME

Phone Book Math

millions hundred thousands ten thousands thousands hundreds tens ones

2. Label each place with its proper value.

1. Write the phone number.

3. Place commas in the correct place

4. Read the number correctly.

5. Write the number in words.

6. Write the number in expanded notation.

7. Use the original phone number to make an addition problem, the last four digits plus the first three digits.

8. Round each addend to the largest place and estimate the answer.

10. Write the original number.

9. Find the actual sum.

11. Round to the thousands place.

12. Round to the hundreds place.

14. Use the first four digits of the number as the top number and the last three digits as the bottom number and write a subtraction problem.

13. Round to the tens place.

15. Round each number to the largest place and estimate the answer.

16. Find the actual difference.