

Commitment

Duke University Summer of Service 2005

WHEREAS, the sponsoring Duke University Alumni Club and Alumni host family have expended time, effort and financial resources in contributing toward a student scholarship, providing housing, and interacting with the undersigned student; and,

WHEREAS, each student participant is given the financial freedom to participate in a Summer of Service internship by receiving a scholarship of $1000 that is provided by sponsoring alumni clubs, individual alumni, or the Duke University Career Center Internship Fund; and,

WHEREAS, Community agencies across the country have agreed to participate in Summer of Service, in order to help students develop an increased social awareness that they may integrate into chosen careers, and depend on the student's active involvement and contribution; and,

WHEREAS, the Duke University Summer of Service program conducts a strenuous student application and screening process in order to identify the most capable and dedicated students to represent the University and the sponsoring Duke University Alumni Club in a Summer of Service internship; and,

WHEREAS, each student selected for the program displaces another student applicant; and award of the scholarship is conditioned on the successful completion of the program;

I, _____ formally commit myself to serving _____ weeks during the summer as part of the Duke University Summer of Service program. I consider it a moral obligation to fulfill all of the requirements of the program thereby justifying the commitment that has been made to me, by all parties involved in planning and executing the Summer of Service internship.
