

www.dukeijm.org/seoul

Duke University International Justice Mission

Remember?

The human crisis in North Korea

Thousands of North Koreans have fled the devastating famine and oppression in their country. They flee at great personal risk, relying on an underground railroad to lead them to safety. This is their story.

Seoul Train

Wednesday, November 8, 7pm

Levine Science and Research Center (LSRC)

Love Auditorium

Film Screening and Letter Writing Campaign