

COURSES > \(2006 FALL\) INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS \(001... > COMMUNICATIONS > DISCUSSION BOARD

1  Failed States and Ethnic Conflicts - Sections 03 and 07

Modify Remove

As agreed in section last week, this discussion thread is for students in Sections 03 and 07 (taught by Amber Díaz) to post reflections on the Failed States and Ethnic Conflicts readings and questions and comments for each other. Participation in the thread is purely voluntary. Extra credit for participation will be given for posting.

Number of
Messages: 1
All read

Some Questions for Thought:

- 1) Is there always a moral imperative for third-party humanitarian intervention in violent ethnic conflicts? Why or why not?
- 2) Are partition or power-sharing the only two potential options for creating lasting peace? What other policies might be effective?
- 3) What are some of the pros and cons of both power-sharing and partition?

OK