

*Another question for me, one for the powers that be
It's got me thrown and so I put on my poker face
And try and figure it out, this undeniable doubt
A common occurrence, feeling so out of place.
Guarded and cynical now, can't help but wondering how
My heart evolved into a rock beating inside of me.
So I reel, such a stoic ordeal
Where's that feeling that I don't feel?*

*There was a girl who had the faith to move a mountain
And like a child she would believe without a reason
Without a trace she disappeared into the void and
I've been searchin' for that missing person.*

*Under a lavender moon so many thoughts consume me.
Who dimmed the light that was once burned so bright in me?
Is this a radical phase, a problematical age
That keeps me running from all that I used to be?
Is there a way to return? Is there a way to unlearn
That carnal knowledge that's chipping away at my soul?
I've been gone for too long. Will I ever find my way home?*

*There was a girl who had the faith to move a mountain
And like a child she would believe without a reason
Without a trace she disappeared into the void and
I've been searchin' for that missing person.
She used to want to try to walk the straight and narrow
She had a fire and she could feel it in the marrow.
It's been a long time and I haven't seen her lately.
I've been searchin' for that missing person.*

what i'm looking for

*I have climbed the highest mountains
I have run through the fields
Only to be with you
Only to be with you
I have run, I have crawled, I have scaled these city walls
Only to be with you*

*But I still haven't found what I'm looking for
But I still haven't found what I'm looking for*

*I have kissed honey lips
Felt the healing in her fingertips
It burned like fire
This burning desire
I have spoke with tongues of angels
I have held the hand of the devil
It was warm in the night
I was cold as stone*

*But I still haven't found what I'm looking for
But I still haven't found what I'm looking for*

*I believe in Kingdom Come
Then all the colors will bleed into one
But yes I'm still running.
You broke the bonds
You loosened the chains
You carried the cross
And my shame
You know I believe it.*

*But I still haven't found what I'm looking for
But I still haven't found what I'm looking for
But I still haven't found what I'm looking for*

*As I stood inside the courtroom, Judge came walking in.
There was one standing beside me, a compassionate friend to me.
As he spoke my situation I knew that he was in control
Of the destiny of my eternal soul.
With a hush the crowd awaited to receive the words he'd say.
The finality was pressing like no other day.
To reveal my destination, that is what I soon would know.
To eternity where where was I to go?*

*Yes your Honor, I'm at your mercy.
You can do with me just as you please.
Please remember my testimony:
The blood of Jesus covers me.*

*When the time came for the verdict
The anticipation rose, but the people knew too well
The path in life they'd chose.
Those who had not cared to answer when in life He gave the call,
Or had known his grace and love only to fall.
But as he looked in my direction I was not afraid
'Cause the nail scarred hands were right there,
They were defending me
But then he rose to give the answer, as we bowed unto the Lord.
He said "Well done my child. Great is your reward."*

*Yes your Honor, I'm at your mercy.
You can do with me just as you please.
Please remember my testimony:
The blood of Jesus covers me.*

*Please remember my testimony:
The blood of Jesus covers me.*

at your mercy

*The long awaited rains have fallen hard upon the thirsty ground and carved their way the where the wild and rushing river can be found.
And like the rain I have been carried here to where the river flows.
My heart is racing and my knees are weak as I walk to the edge.
I know there is no turning back, once my feet have left the ledge
And in the rush I hear a voice that is telling me
It's time to take a leap of faith, so here I go...*

*I'm divin' in
I'm going deep
In over my head I want to be
Caught in the rush, lost in the flow
In over my head I want to go
The river's deep, the river's wide, the river's water is alive.
So sink or swim, I'm divin' in.*

dive

*There is a supernatural power in this mighty river flow
And it can bring the dead to life and it can fill an empty soul
And give a heart the only thing worth livin' and worth dyin' for.
And we will never know the awesome power of the grace of God,
Until we let ourselves be swept away into this holy flood.
So if you'll close my eyes and take my hand we'll count to three
And take a leap of faith, come on let's go...*

*I'm divin' in
I'm going deep
In over my head I want to be
Caught in the rush, lost in the flow
In over my head I want to go
The river's deep, the river's wide, the river's water is alive.
So sink or swim, I'm divin' in.*

*Say goodnight to the light of the setting sun.
One more day, one more way
Of keeping track of all I've done.*

*I run this race, keep this pace. I'm doing fine.
And I won't stop until each box
Gets checked a second time.*

*And life becomes the 'round and 'round
Revolving door that won't slow down
It won't slow down*

*Do you wish, do You want us to breathe again?
Say goodbye to the lines that we've colored in
Brown and gray from day to day.*

*Do You cry? Do You hope for all things made new?
Try and try to invoke us to live in You
That we might be the hands and feet of this mystery.*

*This routine is nice and clean from dawn to dusk.
I rise and rest, I do my best
When will it ever be enough?*

*And life becomes the bigger noise
Drowning out your little voice
Your little voice, Jesus.*

*Do you wish, do You want us to breathe again?
Say goodbye to the lines that we've colored in
Brown and gray from day to day.*

*We take stock, and we punch the clock
And we make sure all the zeros are balanced in the end.*

millennium

We've got stars directing our fate. and we are praying it's not too late. Millennium

*Some say that we are players, some say that we are pawns
But we've been making money, since the day that we were born
Got to slow down. cuz we're low down*

*Run around in circles live a life of solitude
'Til we find ourselves a partner someone to relate to.
Then we'll slow down. Before we fall down*

*We've got stars directing our fate. And we are praying it's not too late
Cuz we know we're falling from grace. Millennium*

*Live for liposuction and detox for your rent.
Overdose at Christmas and give it up for lent
Why have we become so cynical and refuse to keep the faith?
Why do we live such madness if we know we're going to fade away?*

*It seems there are stars directing our fate. And we are praying it's not too late
Cuz we know we're falling from grace. Millennium*

Stop and ask yourself what it's about, is this all there is?

*It's more than stars directing our fate. And just maybe it's not too late
For this generation falling from grace. Millennium*

*There is a love that's greater than all this
A love to lead us on through the madness
Get up and look around, open your eyes. (x2)*

*And it's God directing our fate
And we know that it's not too late
Praise God for a saving grace. Millennium*
